Specification

The use of the trademark VELCRO has been noted in this application. It should be capitalized wherever it appears and be accompanied by the generic terminology.

Although the use of trademarks is permissible in patent applications, the proprietary nature of the marks should be respected and every effort made to prevent their use in any manner which might adversely affect their validity as trademarks.

Claim Objections

Claim 4 is objected to because of the following informalities: "a awning" should be "an awning". Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Zheng.

Zheng teaches a tent (Fig. 1) with extendable windows (134). The windows each include a frame (122) in a sleeve that borders a portion of the window (see Fig. 5) and an awning (118), which extends from the frame/window. The windows also include a lower attachment seam (see Fig. 5) and a guy wire (130).
